Workshop brief:

The realm of teaching Architecture is challenging and has to adopt and deal with altered student behavior and raising academic demands. Teaching methods and approaches have to be critically re examined and adapted to the rapidly changing academic environment.

As Architecture can no longer be seen in isolation, inter disciplinary collaboration between architecture, humanities and other relevant fields have to become an integral part of teaching.

Workshop objectives:

Strengthen the confidence of faculty in teaching and performing
Address the core areas of challenges faced in Architectural teaching and Provide possible alternate approaches
Encourage interdisciplinary collaboration
Upgrading skills pertaining to academic research
